1. What was the best new thing for Rada and Jonny? [3점]

Rada and Jonny couldn't float anymore. That was the first new thing.

"What's that sound?" asked Rada.

"A bird is singing," said Mom.

"I've never heard a bird sing," said Rada.

"And I've never felt the wind," said Jonny.

These were all new things. Rada and Jonny ran up the nearest hill. At the top, they looked at each other and laughed. Then they lay down on the soft green grass and rolled down the hill. That was their secret!

"This is the best new thing of all!" shouted Rada and Jonny. And they ran up to the top of the hill again.

- ① It was running up the nearest hill.
- ② It was that Rada and Jonny felt the wind.
- ③ It was hearing a bird singing in the mountain.
- ④ It was that Rada and Jonny couldn't float anymore.

Rada lived on a little world, far out in space. She lived there with her father, mother, and brother Jonny. Rada's father and other people worked on spaceships. Only Rada and Jonny were children, and they were born in space. (A) One day, Dad told Rada and Jonny, "We're going back to Earth tomorrow." Rada and Jonny looked at Dad in surprise and floated towards him. Rada asked Dad, "What's it like on Earth?" "Everything is different there. (B) For example, the sky is blue," answered Dad. "I have never seen a blue sky," said Jonny. "The sky is always black here," said Rada. "You don't have to wear your big heavy space suits because there is ① everywhere. It's also hard to jump there because Earth pulls you down," said Dad. "What else?" asked Rada. "You can roll down the hills," answered Mom. "Dad, have you ever rolled down a hill?" asked Rada. "Yes, it's really amazing!" answered Dad. (C) Jonny swallowed the balls. "Jonny, if you drink milk that way on Earth, you'll get wet," said Mom. Later that night, Rada and Jonny talked a long time about Earth. ② 그들이 보고, 하게 될 모든 새로운 것들에 대해 생각하는 것은 흥미진진했다. There was one new thing Rada and Jonny really wanted to do. (D) They thought about it all night and didn't tell Mom and Dad about it. It was their secret. (E) The next day, Rada's family got on a spaceship. "It's going to be a long trip," said Mom. The spaceship finally landed. "Dad, it's difficult to walk on Earth," said Rada. "I know. Earth is pulling you down," said Dad.

An Interview with Dr. Park Byeong-seon

On May 27, 2011, 297 books of Uigwe, a collection of royal books the French army took in 1866, came back to Korea. (A)The person behind this return is Dr. Park Byeong-seon, a historian who spent her whole life searching for Korean national treasures abroad.

Interviewer: (B)Can you tell me how you became interested in Uigwe?

Dr. Park: (A)I studied history in college. I went to France to continue my studies in 1955. (B)As you know, the French army took many of our national treasures in 1866. (C)I wanted to find them while I was studying there. Uigwe was one of them.

Interviewer: (D)You found 297 books of Uigwe in the National Library of France, in Paris. (E)Please tell them how I found them.

Dr. Park: As soon as I became a researcher at the National Library in 1967, I began to look for Uigwe. After 10 years, in 1977, I finally found the books. I think I looked at more than 30 million books.

Interviewer: I'm sure you were very excited when you found the books.

Dr. Park: Yes, I was, but more difficulties were waiting for me. I thought that the books should be returned to Korea, but my bosses at the library didn't like that idea. They even thought that I was a Korean spy and fired me. (A)After that, I had to go to the library as a visitor, so it was not easy to do research on Uigwe. However, I didn't give up. For more than ten years, I went to the library every day to finish my research. I wanted to show people the value of Uigwe.

Interviewer: (B)The results of your research published as book in Korean in 1990. (C)Many Koreans became interested in Uigwe because of your book.

Dr. Park: Yes. In 1992, the Korean government asked the French government for its return and, finally, the 297 books are here now.
